

DECC Heat Networks Roadshow

Thursday 18th July 2013

9.30 to 13.45 (registration from 9.00)

Lord Mayor's Parlour, Manchester Town Hall, Albert Square, Manchester, M2 5DB.

Location: <http://www.manchester.gov.uk/location>

AGENDA

9.00 Registration, tea and coffee available

9.30 Welcome

Councillor Nigel Murphy, Manchester City Council

9.40 Introduction to the morning

Julian Packer, Cogenco

9.45 The Heat Network Delivery Unit

Robert Tudway & Stephen Rippon, DECC

An introduction to the Heat Network Delivery Unit and what it can offer local authorities and local enterprise partnerships.

10.20 Local authority projects

A series of presentations from local authorities currently developing heat network projects, including those supported through the DECC Low Carbon Pioneer Cities Project:

- Jonathan Sadler, Manchester City Council
- Allen Jones, Newcastle City Council
- Rachel Waggett, Warrington Borough Council

11.20 Refreshment break

And chance to submit questions to DECC as part of the panel discussion.

11.40 Application criteria and assessment process

Robert Tudway & Stephen Rippon, DECC

An overview of how the selection process will work and the types of projects supported.

12.00 Round table discussions and "take-away" points for DECC

- What are the opportunities and challenges for local authorities and local enterprise partnerships?
- What projects are currently in development or on the horizon?
- What support will you be looking for from the Heat Network Delivery Unit?
- Forming key questions for the panel

- 12.30 Questions to panel
Julian Packer, Cogenco
- 12.50 Reflections, summary and close
Julian Packer, Cogenco
- 13.00 Buffet lunch
Delegates free to meet the speakers and network over lunch.
- 13.45 Close

CLASP.